STRATHCONA NEWS

LOCALS.

Mr. James Smith sold his team of greys last week at a good figure. A meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this evening at a quorum meeting.

Several young ladies in Strathcona are taking a summer course at the University of Alberta Business College, Edmonton.

Rev. Mr. Flemming preached in First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton, last Sunday evening. Mr. Kerr, of that church, came over to take Mr. Flemming's pulpit.

Through the city fathers are slow in carrying out their promise to walk on the Strathcona-Edmonton road, the number of pedestrians who are increasing daily.

Knox Church Young Men's Club expect to add a large number to their present membership next Saturday evening. Mr. Davies' beautiful lawn will be the scene of action and a lawn tennis tournament.

The communion services in Knox Church on Sunday morning were attended by probably the largest number of communicants in the history of the congregation. The old church is far too small for the accomodation of all.

The people here undergo radical changes and improvements. Three wickets have been placed along the east side of the city, between the east side and the west side. J. A. Connolly, real estate office, has been taken in, and the business of the office has considerably enlarged. Seventy-five new boxes have been installed. The work is progressing rapidly.

BIG SHIPPERS OBTAIN CUT RATES FROM RAILWAY

Board Commission in Session at Stettler—added to Effect That Gordon Ironsides & Co. and Burns & Co. Get Lower Rates From C. P. R. than Small Shippers—Ranching is Profitable

Staff Correspondent, Stettler, June 13.—The Board Commission concluded its investigation into the conditions of the beef production industry as they obtain this month.

Four meetings were held in Erskine and in Stettler on June 12.

After a careful scrutiny of the situation as it presents itself at the present time, and especially during the past several weeks, the Board found that the grievances complained of were very acute, or that there was no question of their being acute, among those who gave evidence that the rancher's occupation was not a fairly profitable one.

It was noted in the evidence, but in conversation with your correspondent, that the ranchers are not particularly advertising their grievances. They are doing this through their methods of marketing, and the markets that prevail in the markets—of which is creating a strong public opinion that the ranchers' ways and trusts must sooner or later reckons, and capitulates. In this connection, the prevailing opinion is that competition is doing a notable work.

The position before the Commission has been met in many ways, in nature as in the other cases. The 5 per cent. shrinkage came in for inspection by the majority of the witnesses.

Many, however, stated that they did not understand the shrinkage, and treatment of small shippers received a good deal of attention.

In this connection, the majority of ranchers with regard to the C. P. R. had no separate deal for the individual rancher.

Debitable evidence of favoritism in this respect was submitted by Mr. Clark, who is well known in the community, and he is the president of the Chamber of Commerce at Stettler.

He told of a delay in Calgary which he attributed to the fact that C. P. R. refused to pay it, though they paid a larger sum for a similar delay in the case of the agent of Gordon, Ironsides & Co.

This same witness gave a strong affidavit that he had been against him, and in favor of Mr. Shaw, the agent of Gordon Ironsides & Co. in the matter of the 5 per cent. shrinkage. He paid 90¢ per cwt. from Strathmore to Highwood, while Mr. Shaw paid 92¢ per cwt. for the same run to Highwood.

If it is true or not, there is a considerable difference between the two, and one can be given to the top men, or Gordon, Ironsides & Co. and P. Burns & Co., who stated they were not approached by the C. P. R. to the Commission, who said that when he was manager of the C. P. R. he wrote to the president of the C. P. R. to advise him that the 5 per cent. shrinkage was the result of private enterprise was the solution, and the other solution offered by President Macmillan was the centralization of operation of the rail road meat trade.

The brand inspection methods were entirely unsatisfactory, and one of the suggestions made was that there would be a change in the method of identifying the cattle and hogs that are transported by railroads.

The question of the meat supply to the construction camps during the winter months was also discussed. Mr. R. was being built was investigated by the commission. The gospel is that there was no financial relationship between the Burns' company and Mr. Puffer, the C. P. R. and the company managing the construction camp. It was difficult to get a statement of the real question, or grievance from the various witnesses who signed it. The only evidence submitted was to the effect that Mr. Puffer used cheques of P. Burns & Co. in delivering the meat to various ranchers.

Only two witnesses were called, Mr. Darmah, who was in charge of a camp at Thor, N.W., and Mr. Norris, a contractor.

Mr. Darmah did not receive any receipts of delivery of meat with the P. Burns & Co. name upon them; he was sure that Mr. Puffer had never sent him any meat, but he never found anything crooked.

Mr. Norris stated he never saw any such cheques in his dealings with Mr. Puffer.

Mr. Puffer, who was called, said that he and P. Burns & Co. obtained an agreement with some of the contractors to supply them with meat.

The Burns' company paid the bill, but did not pay the meat, and as a consequence never got it over to Mr. Puffer. Mr. Puffer explained that some of the Burns' delivery cheques were used by him, his helpers, and others, and that he did not know that there was no relation between his firm and that of P. Burns & Co.

There was a question as to whether there was a relation between the Burns' company and the stock and dressed meat trade, and as far as he could learn, he was not able to say.

As far as he could learn, he did not find from the spirit of the evidence, it would seem that the witnesses do not know what the relation is between the whole situation of the live stock and dressed meat trade is controlled by anyone, and Mr. Puffer's explanation was received with general acceptance.

This year Mr. Teas tried a new plan of getting his cattle to the Calgary shipping show. He was surprised to find that the buyers had greatly evaded him, though his cattle were prime winners. Before he went to the show, he wrote to the manager of the C. P. R. and told him that he intended to go to Calgary, but finally he was compelled to telegraph him that he would not go, as he was engaged in a competition at the spring sale. He had no competitor, and the buyers were anxious among the buyers to freeze him out, which they hoped would compel him to sacrifice his cattle at the last moment.

He further stated that prices had been raised on the cattle, and that in this connection, Mr. Begg, a buyer in British Columbia, had come into the district.

Mr. Teas' remedy for the lack of buyers was to go to the market and the establishment of packing and canning houses by private enterprisers, with whom he would act as a regulator and a competitor.

Competition That Cuts Both Ways. Mr. Teas informed the commission that he had been unable to sell his cattle, and that he did not know why.

In 1905 Mr. Puffer and P. Burns & Co. cut the price of dressed meat from 90¢ per cwt. to 80¢ per cwt. to 70¢ per cwt. and the shrinkage was 5 per cent.

Mr. Teas' remedy for the lack of buyers was to go to the market and the establishment of packing and canning houses by private enterprisers, with whom he would act as a regulator and a competitor.

The witness was asked if he was in favor of the 5 per cent. shrinkage, and he said he was.

He did not see any great evil in the contract system, if a farmer chose to use it.

big letter every year in the cattle business, and submitted it as his opinion that cattle should be driven to market.

He had done it, and thought the buyers on the whole fair.

C. P. R. and P. Burns.

Edward Barnet, the oldest rancher in the valley, has been driving cattle to market for 30 years.

He said that he had never seen any great evil in the contract system, if a farmer chose to use it.

The witness was asked if he was in favor of the 5 per cent. shrinkage, and he said he was.

He did not see any great evil in the contract system, if a farmer chose to use it.

and he did not think the ranchers would ever see the same unfavorable conditions again, as they had experienced in former years.

John Foxxhall, who accompanied Mr. Barnet, said that he had shipped cattle to Wainwright, Alta., and that they were two days on the road to Wainwright, and were delayed at every turn until they reached Wainwright.

They had to wait for the arrival of the Red Deer.

Mr. Barnet believed that the C. P. R. and the Burns' company were not complete with the arrival of the Red Deer.

Mr. Barnet was asked if he had any objection to the "orphan train."

He replied that he did not.

A Successful Shipper.

John Ewing and Benjamin J. Foxhall, of Ewing, gave evidence that the Burns' company, who had been shipping cattle to Wainwright, Alta., since 1906, had got $35.45 per head, which was the price received by the Burns' company.

They had been getting a price of $35.45 per head.

Mr. Foxhall thought the delays were caused by the subordinates of the railroads.

Co-operation the Remedy.

Wm. Trevenen, of Alix, stated that the grievances from which the ranchers suffered in 1906 had been alleviated in the early days, if any measure of co-operation had been possible among the ranchers themselves.

EDMONTON LOSES TWICE SATURDAY

First Game Lost by Forfeit— Outbatted in Second

Lethbridge, July 14.—Lethbridge got both parts of a doubleheader. The first game was a pitcher's duel between McClain and Fogarty with odd slightly in favor of the former. Two runs were scored in the fourth, enough to insure that prompted him to put them out of the game with the result that he was beaten. The second game was by forfeit in the last of the sixth. At that time the score was 3 to 1 in favor of the visitors. The game was played very fast and Kild Ford's one-handed catch of a foul was spectacular. Score:

B. H. E.	Edmonton	91100-2	6	0
Eddies	90300-10	16	10	1
Batteries—McClain and Ford. Fogarty and Rogers.

Second Game.

The evening game was full of firework. The home pitchers were on top and the visitors had to stand and hold their hands. MacClair was pulled out in the fifth after Rogers had tripped. Fogarty doubled and Eddies' Eddies followed with a hit better as O'Dea got a two base and Tappard a round trip before the side was out. Eddies' Eddies won the game in the seventh but fell short. Fogarty pitched a steady game allowing no runs except keeping the hits well scattered. Score:

B. H. E.	Edmonton	91100-2	6	0
Eddies	90300-10	16	10	1
Batteries—McClain and Ford. Fogarty and Rogers.

CALGARY LOSES TWO.

COPPER COUNTRY BASEBALL.

Calumet Chippewas on Circuit.

Crowds Almost Smart.

Winnipeg, July 14.—Ted Sullivan, one of the greatest baseball promoters in the world, had the same experience in the Copper Country as he has in the north country. He found that the northern copper country magnates are getting now. In illustration of this he said: "I have heard a great deal about the wealth of the copper country, and I am sure that it would be a great place to locate the national game. I went to Calumet and Marquette, and I found that they were very enthusiastic and that we would be playing to capacity over there. I am sure that the people living there will be able to support this ball and hill story and get by with it. Well, to tell the truth, we never did play to capacity over there with the exception of one or two Sundays."

"About this time I was greatly annoyed one day to see a fan sitting on a camp stool just outside the fence during the game, and I asked him what he was doing. He said he had an umbrella over his head and a pair of field glasses in his hand. He was probably sitting there because he was getting beat. Finally, in the seventh inning, when Houston made seven runs, he got up, took his umbrella and started to portage it across the field. I told him to stop, and he did, so I let down the shade of his umbrella, and his glass and hill story, and turned to another fan who was witnessing the contest through the next hole in the fence. I said, 'That's most foolish, last time that will come to see those fellow's play.'"

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

New York, July 14.—The interest in amateur tennis has reached its peak in the continuation of play at Wimbledon, England, by the American team, tennis stars, and the British team, tennis stars, in the preliminary singles and doubles. Success in these will put them in the final, last time that will come to see those fellow's play."

GREAT GALLOPER GONE.

Winnipeg, July 14.—The speedy little racing pony owned by James

Warren, which had worn nearly every event in which she was entered this year, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at Portage la Prairie, Man., and took her last ride in the stable where she had been stabled since the fall. She had been a great favorite with all the racing fans, and it is expected that even better speed will be shown when the drivers and the automobiles themselves.

The automobile men got up the trap and the racing drivers in anticipation of the races, and yesterday afternoon after many hours was made with the best of care to get her ready for the race.

The racing fans were greatly disappointed when she had to be retired from racing because she had been getting weaker and died.

SPRING VALLEY.

Spring Valley is situated six miles south of twenty-five miles west of Edmonton, and in this district the crops of every kind grow well,

and the soil is well adapted for the conditions necessary for an exceptional growth to obtain. In fact the grain is well suited for the market everywhere over witness here.

That the crops are so far advanced

as to late in the season to make them ripe for harvesting is due to the fact that the weather has been fairly warm and dry throughout the past summer, and the soil has been well prepared for the growth of the grain.

With the ground filled with snow-

water and the frost in the ground,

the ground is covered with moisture contained in the soil, the rapid growth of vegetation can thus be secured, and the grain is of better quality of wheat, oats, barley, potatoes and the heaviest crop of grain.

Meadow grass on Spring Valley

stands now thirty-five inches high,

and the ground is covered with weed upon a sheep's back.

Our great astronomers, Foster and

Wiggins, tell us now that the sun is the cause of the great heat in July, and the cause of the great heat in July is the cause of the heat in July.

LIBERAL GROUP TO COME BACK

R. G. Macpherson Says British Columbia is Strongly For Laurier

Victoria, July 13.—R. G. Macpherson, M.P., judge at the reports that he was to speak at the meeting last night at Philadelphia, has informed the press that his opponents have been busy buying bulletins for him ever since he spoke at the meeting, and that anyone who knows the aggressive and capable member for the Territories and his friends in a fight to have him any desire to drop out of the race.

The speaker of contention, however, Mr. Macpherson says the Laurier administration has given steady service in favor of the country, and whether he will speak again this year or two years hence it will be a matter of public opinion.

He is in London, Canada, to meet Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Prime Minister, who is to speak at the meeting.
